A Note to Authors

We believe academic fields have for too long been stagnant. Many ideas have been lost because of excessive rigidities. Our national refereeing process is flexible and welcomes innovative approaches and ideas that seem promising. Your manuscript is part of a process that is author-friendly without sacrificing academic standards. We believe in working with and mentoring authors on manuscript details. If your manuscript shows promise, we won't give up if you don't. Since founded in 1982, NATIONAL FORUM JOURNALS have pledged to publish scholarly articles and journals of the highest ethical integrity.

Initial Assessment Fee

Authors are required to pay $40.00 for an initial assessment of your manuscript conducted by the NFJ editorial staff.

Professional Service Fee

This is not a publication fee. All NATIONAL FORUM JOURNALS are financially self-supported through library subscriptions, individual subscribers, and donations. This allows us academic freedom from intellectual bias. The professional service fee helps pay for expenses relative to communicating efficiently and personally with authors, national referees, and preparing articles for publication and dissemination. The professional service fee must be paid prior to publication and is tax deductible.

How to Determine Your Professional Service Fee

Manuscripts are assessed $25.00 per double-spaced page. There is also an administrative manuscript fee of $125.00 for preparing a manuscript for publication and global dissemination.

For example, the professional service fee for a 10 page manuscript would cost $375.00.

10 pages @ $25.00 = $250.00 + $125.00 =
Total: $375.00
